

אמת

What is truth?

Truth is self-defining. Ancient Hebrew is a God-composed language whose word's construction gives revelation.

Consider אמת:

This Hebrew word has variations of meaning -
אמת - firmness, stability, perpetuity; and truth, faithfulness

This word is a merger of the words:

אם - mother and מת - a man, especially a husband
whose combination in the family unit fulfills the first definition.

In view of the second definition of truth, faithfulness consider:

א - ox, cow; thousand, head of a thousand

The ox was the chief of strength for work and a clean animal of sacrifice (particularly the red heifer as a special sacrifice). As head, it is also the beginning of the Hebrew alphabet and beginning of truth.

אם - behold; if, when

To call for one's intense attention to something's importance as well as pose a question, but no answer.

מת - death, dead

ת - a sign (in the form of a cross), mark subscribed instead of a name to a bill of complaint - Gesenius; signature, as a seal put to a contract

In ancient Hebrew script, it was drawn as a cross (†×).

It is the final letter of the Hebrew alphabet.

For truth to be reality, it must contain all its parts. Truth, without the proper starting of א - the chief, strength and sacrifice, leaves only death מת.

Without the seal of the cross of ת there is the behold, but the omission of what to behold. It leaves an unanswered question.

The Lord Jesus Christ is the Aleph and the Tau of truth.

In the New Testament, Jesus declared Himself to be the first letter and the last letter of the Greek alphabet. He put it this way:

I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty. Revelation 1:8

In the middle is the letter מ (Mem) which means water.

The Holy Spirit is the water of life we receive in the truth of Christ.

Only the proper beginning א (who is Jesus) can turn death מת to truth and faithfulness אמת.

Only the proper seal to the contract ת can answer to the eternal question and focus אם.

Christ signed the bill of complaint filed against us in the signature of His cross.

The water of life is only found coming from the midst of the aleph א and ת the beginning and the ending.

There is more in TRUTH than first meets the eyes!
